OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 25 April 1960

25X1 1. [] Boyd Crawford, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, telephoned advising that [] 25X1 [] is apparently associating with the Agency in some capacity as a doctor and Crawford was inquiring simply if as a matter of courtesy we could expedite his clearance. I told him we would look into the matter.

25X1 2. [] Talked to Boyd Crawford about the Captive Nations resolutions. He indicated that the proposed meeting last week did not come off. In the meantime, Representative Feighan has requested the Chairman to be heard on his version of the resolution. In discussion Crawford asked our views on this and I explained our concern with the Douglas/Feighan type resolution as opposed to the Zablocki resolution. He was most appreciative of this viewpoint and indicated that he was going to discuss this with the Chairman. The substance of the above was passed to Jack Hogland in State Department.

4. Transmitted verbal clarification to Messrs. Mandel and Schroeder of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff of statements contained in a report of 14 April 1960 prepared by WH Division and transmitted to the Committee on 19 April 1960. The information requested

Remarks: Attached is an excerpt from the Congressional Record of 2 May containing the discussion preceding passage by the House of Zablocki's Captive Nations Resolution (H. Con. Res. 633) by a vote of 276 yeas to no nays. You will recall that this is the least objectionable of the several types of resolution which were introduced on this subject. I sent a note to the Director yesterday advising him that this resolution had been reported and [redacted] is putting these pages in the Director's clipping book. [redacted] Assistant Legislative Counsel
